Description

2002 MALIBU WAKESETTER.

This boat is a nice clean example of a 2002 Wakesetter with a Monsoon 335 engine which currently has 532 hours of use.

It is very clean inside with a couple of tears on the seats as seen in the photos.it also has ballast tanks in the rear and center to give a bigger wake.

so whether its wake boarding,towing a tube or skiing and kneeboarding, this is a great family boat for days out on the lake or river with all the luxury for fun filled summer days.
